

OBITUARY

Jarrold Brent Shivers , Chesapeake

Monday, Jan. 21, 2008

©The Virginian-Pilot

Jarrold Brent Shivers, 34, died in the line of duty Jan. 17, 2008. He was a native of El Paso, Texas and had lived in Chesapeake for eight years and was preceded in death by his mother, Judy Nelson Shivers. He was a graduate of West Chester East High School and St. Leo's College and was a former volunteer fireman with the East Goshen, Pa., Fire Department. He was a devoted husband, son and father and was a Harley-Davidson motorcycle enthusiast and loved mountain biking. Jarrold was a detective with the Chesapeake Police Department, having worked as a uniformed patrol and bicycle officer and most recently was a detective in the Special Investigations Section. He was a SWAT Team operator and breacher. He is survived by his wife, Nicole Bowers Shivers; two daughters, Brittanie J. Bowers and Ashleigh T. Shivers; his son, Landon C. Shivers, all of Chesapeake; his paternal grandparents, Lester and Evelyn Shivers; his parents, James R. Shivers and Sandra Shivers, all of Downingtown, Pa.; his sister, Jennifer L. Shivers of Oakland, Calif.; stepsister, Andrea Tancredi of Clayville, N.Y.; stepbrother, Mark Sarojak of Downingtown; and five nieces and nephews. A funeral with full police honors will be held Tuesday in Great Bridge Baptist Church at 11 a.m. by Pastor Jim Wall. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Norfolk. The family will receive friends in the Chesapeake Chapel of H.D. Oliver Funeral Apts., today from 6 to 9 p.m. Memorial donations may be made to the Jarrold B. Shivers Memorial Fund c/o Bank of Hampton Roads. Online condolences may be sent to the family at hdliver.com.